

Biography: Steve Burnett

Steve began Burnett Group in 1979 to provide the financial community with high-quality marketing communications. The firm pioneered the industry's first interactive marketing communications effort in 1988. Steve was a visiting instructor of Visual Design at Pratt Institute from 2005-2007. He currently lives in Bovina, New York and operates an organic farm.

He graduate from University of Iowa and Grinnell College and holds an MS in Communications Design from Pratt Institute.